Explanatory Notes:

1. JASP courses at 2000 and above level as well as those labeled as # will be included in the calculation of Major GPA for honours classification.
2. Students (i) who cannot fulfill the requirement of Required Courses labeled as * specified under 2 (a) above before the planned year of resident study in Japan; or (ii) who have been put on academic probation at the planned year of resident study in Japan or any time before (regardless of whether the academic probation has been lifted), will not be arranged to participate in the resident study in Japan. These students will be required to complete the major programme requirements by following the Local Study Scheme specified above.

[a] LING1000 which counts towards the fulfillment of the requirements specified in 1 Faculty Package cannot be used for the fulfillment of the requirements specified in 3(a) Non-language Courses and the Japanese Language and Linguistics stream.

[b] Students who have prior knowledge of Japanese before admission may be exempted from taking JASP1470, 1480, 2470 and 2480. They should seek the advice of the Department to take substitute courses in accordance with their academic qualifications as follows:

- (i) Students who passed placement test and exempted from taking any or all required language course(s) (JASP1470, 1480, 2470 and/or 2480) are required to take corresponding units of Language courses at 3000 or 4000 level specified under 3(b) above, to substitute for the relevant course(s). These substitute courses cannot be double-counted to fulfill the required elective of 3 units of 4000 level language course.
- (ii) Students who possess Japanese Language Proficiency Test (N2) qualification when admitted are required to take 18 units of Elective Courses specified under 3 above, with at least 12 units of Language courses at 3000 or 4000 level, to substitute for the 4 relevant courses. These substitute courses cannot be double-counted to fulfill the required elective of 3 units of 4000 level language course.
- (iii) Students who possess Japanese Language Proficiency Test (N1) qualification when admitted are required to take 18 units of Elective Courses specified under 3 above, with at least 9 units of Language courses at 4000 level, to substitute for the 4 relevant courses. These substitute courses cannot be double-counted to fulfill the required elective of 3 units of 4000 level language course.
- (iv) Native Japanese students are required to take 18 units of Elective Courses specified under 3 above, with or without any Language courses, to substitute for the 4 relevant courses. If they choose to take Language courses, they are allowed to take Language courses at 4000 level only, subject to the approval of the course teacher. If they choose to take non-language courses, they should take at least 12 units of elective courses at 2000 or above level.

Approved courses taken in substitution for JASP1470, 1480, 2470 and 2480 will be included in the Major GPA calculation.

[c] Students are responsible for the extra costs incurred in relation to the resident study in Japan.

[d] These courses are only offered to students before their resident study in Japan.
