Japanese Culture and Society

日本の文化と社会

Classroom: LSK 306, 13.30-17.15 Tuesdays

Instructor: Dr. Takamichi Mito

Everybody is welcome. 日本からの留学生も大歓迎です。 Join us and let's have fun, sharing your views and deepening an understanding of Japan with many other students and Dr.
Mito.

This course covers such topics as popular and mass culture, education, home & family, working life, law & order, women & gender, leisure and play, religion and nationalism in modern Japan. The language of instruction is English.

Dr. Mito is a leading Japan expert and has taught at Cambridge, Harvard, London (SOAS), Lund, Monash, Southern Methodist and other leading universities. Formerly, he was professor at CUHK, Kyushu, Waseda and Kwansei Gakuin Universities. His latest research, "Universities in Modern Japan: a Historical Outline," was published as a book chapter in Paul Snowden (Ed.) Handbook of Higher Education in Japan
by Cambridge University Press online in 2023.
