

JASP3120

Everyday Life and Cultural Representation in Modern Japan

現代日本日常生活與文化再現

This course aims at examining the dynamics between everyday life, modernity, and the representation of tradition in modern Japan from two different perspectives. Part One of the course introduces students Japanese responses to the idea of modernity, and the cultural transformation and social crisis over the course of Japan's modernization. Part Two examines the continuation of, rapprochement with, and appropriation of traditional elements in the cultural lives of contemporary Japan.

Fall 2026

Dr. Simon Tu

Thursday: 14:30-17:15 (ERB405)

廣東話 • English